has been frequently mentioned in conthese alleged "frameups' nd the belief prevails that if the information presented here in the last few days is true the limits of propriety have been exceeded by German reports in this country. There is no desire upon the part of the Administration to raise any disagree-able issue with the German Government. Consequently the reply to the embassy memorandum is being given the most careful consideration at the State Department and at the White House.

It is not doubted that the Berlin Government was not well aware of the purport of the memorandum sent to the State Department by Count von Bern-storff, the German Ambassador, and that his communication represents the views of his Government. Hence, this communication could not in all probability be made an issue without involving the United States with the German Government.

Some Say Break Is Sought.

As there are those who believe that break with the United States is desired, the disposition in official quarters is all the stronger in favor of nothing which shall furnish the basis of a quar-

One is that Germany desires to get the United States into the war, realizing that hostilities between the two countries could amount to practically nothing in order to have this country a party to the final peace making, on the theory that United States would exercise a re-

SHIP LEAKS, EXPERTS SAY

Norrolk, Va., April 12 .- Captain-Lieutenant Thierfelder of the German onverted cruiser Kronpring Wilhelm which dashed into this port yesterday through a patrol of four enemy ships, declared to-day that he would put to sea again in a fortnight.

In an informal conversation with Collector of Customs Hamilton he intimated that he was obliged to hasten the work of repairing his ship because he must resume his naval duties at sea in behalf of his Government. His remarks were construed as indicating that such were his orders.

There was a disposition here, however, to take with a grain of salt the German officer's declaration of his purposes. These were almost identical with the statements of Capt. Thierichsen of the Eitel Friedrich before he requested emission to intern.

Experts estimate that it will take at least three weeks to put the Wilhelm in a seaworthy condition and inti-mate that it would be foolhardiness for her to put to sea in her present condi-tion. She is leaking badly along her sides, several shell plates having been loosened while she coaled at sea. It is believed that the condition of her sides was one of the chief reasons why te put into port here.
